The Fraud Investigator II also participates in the development of policies and procedures, planning and directing parts of the investigative program, writes and ensures accuracy of investigative reports, prepares highly sensitive correspondence, and may act in a lead capacity over the work of the Fraud Investigator I and other staff. Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Gather and organize evidence to support allegations of improper activities or investigations.
- Ensure that investigative projects are managed effectively.
- Perform analysis of evidence to draw sound defensible conclusions regarding allegations of improper governmental activities.
- Draft reports regarding results of investigations and follow up on the results/recommendations.
- Effectively work and communicate with others including supervisors, coworkers, and representatives from outside entities.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS:

- Outstanding written and oral communication skills.
- Excellent analytical abilities, including: the ability to apply complex legal criteria to factual situations; to sift through voluminous financial records to determine whether public funds were utilized properly; and to evaluate conflicting witness statements to distinguish truth from falsehood.
- Strong interviewing skills, including the ability to elicit information from persons who are angry, frightened, or defensive.
- Knowledge of investigative terms and methodologies.
- Knowledge of the California Whistleblower Protection Act and the structure of state government.
- Proven ability to work well as a member of a small team or independently, depending on the assignment.
- Familiarity with Microsoft Word and Excel.
- Experience directing efforts toward multiple assignments that must be completed simultaneously.
- Knowledge of quality assurance and quality control methodologies to ensure work is accurate and complete.
- Ability to lead staff using various leadership styles and understanding the types of situation in which each should be applied to effectively lead staff.
ADDITIONAL DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS:

- Possession of a valid certificate for Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE).

Special Requirements:

- Willingness to accept constructive criticism to improve the quality of work performed.
- Willingness to travel to conduct work activities.
- Willingness to work away from the headquarters’ office to conduct work activities.
- Willingness to work long and irregular hours to complete work activities.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENT: In addition to your STD. 678 application, please provide a Statement of Qualifications (SOQ) for the hiring manager’s review. Responses must be no longer than two pages, single spaced, using a 12-point font size. Your SOQ must address the following:

1. What specific elements of your education and experience most qualify you for an advanced journey level fraud investigator position?
2. What work have you performed that best demonstrates your ability to perform the duties of an advanced journey level fraud investigator?

HOW TO APPLY: Email or mail a signed standard state application (STD. 678) and SOQ to the appropriate address indicated below. All mailed applications must be postmarked no later than the final filing date. All emailed applications must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. PST on the final filing date. Applications postmarked or emailed after the final filing date or time will not be accepted for any reason.

Complete a standard state application (STD. 678) and SOQ. Send the completed application to:
