DUTIES: Under the direction of the Chief Legal Counsel, the incumbent works independently or in a team environment depending on the assignment, in the Legal Office to provide formal and informal oral and written legal advice on a variety of issues supporting the California State Auditor (state auditor). The California State Auditor's Office (state auditor's office) plays a critical role in overseeing the financial accountability and performance of government entities in California by auditing those entities and conducting other related work. The attorneys who support the state auditor work in an independent, non-partisan capacity, advising the state auditor on the laws that apply to government agencies and programs in California, including those that apply to the state auditor's office. The incumbent assists the Chief Counsel and other employees in performing legal research, analysis, and legal tasks. The newly appointed incumbent will be assigned to provide support primarily to the Audits Division.

LEGAL SUPPORT RELATED TO AUDITS

The attorneys in the Legal Office provide ongoing legal support related to the state auditor's audit responsibilities, which include financial, compliance, and performance audits of any publicly-created entity in California. Attorneys who support the Audits Division perform the following functions:

- Prior to the approval of a performance audit request by the Legislature, conduct highly critical and time-sensitive preliminary legal research and analysis to support the state auditor's audit analyses.
- Upon approval of a performance audit or the commencement of other types of audits:
 - Gather and analyze relevant laws and other legal materials, such as judicial precedents, proposed legislation, administrative decisions, and other legal authorities.
 - Interpret and apply those laws to particular regulatory programs or legal issues identified as part of the audit.
 - Provide summaries and opinions of those laws.
 - Communicate the results of the research and analysis, both verbally and in writing, to management and others within the state auditor's office.
 - Review audit reports and related correspondence for legal content and consistency, including the review of audit recommendations involving legal compliance or changes in law.
 - Write sections of audit reports, if necessary, that pertain to complex areas of law.

OTHER LEGAL RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to performing the work described above, the attorneys who support the Audits Division provide other general legal assistance to the state auditor, as follows:

- Perform legislative research and provide legal advice on pending legislation that may impact the state auditor; determine the content and impact of proposed laws and regulations on the operations, including the rights, duties, and authority, of the state auditor's office; summarize and report the results of such research.
- Draft proposed legislation, regulations, manuals and legal forms.
- Assist and/or represent the state auditor in meetings that require a legal expert.
- Provide appropriate legal advice on a broad range of legal issues, including, but not limited to, compliance with laws related to conflicts of interest, public records access, and laws related to confidentiality.
- Interpret laws and regulations; draft and review legal documents, including subpoenas, court documents, and contracts; conduct depositions; represent the state auditor in legal matters; and, upon occasion, represent or assist other counsel in litigation on behalf of or in defense of the state auditor.
- Draft and/or review internal state auditor policies.
- Other duties and projects as assigned.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS:

- Ability to work well under pressure.
- Adaptable to changing situations and assignments.
- Exceptional inter-personal and organizational skills.
- Ability to review and analyze complex and sensitive issues concerning a variety of legal issues.
- Ability to work with other state agencies, and other high level administrative staff.
- Ability to provide advice to and represent the state auditor's office on a broad range of legal issues.
- Ability to work cooperatively and deal effectively with others.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills and the ability to clearly explain legal issues and legal conclusions to non-lawyers.
- Ability to handle large and varied assignments.
- Ability to work on several concurrent projects with different audit teams.

REQUIREMENT: Membership in the State Bar of California. (Applicants must have active membership in the State Bar before they will be eligible for appointment.)
